

Fall 2006 Schedule of Programs for Adults

Independent Films at the Library

The Kent County Public Library will be showing Independent Films from Film Movement on the Big Screen. We will show these films on the First Friday of the Month to coincide with the First Friday art celebrations throughout Chestertown. Films should be finished in time to head down to the art galleries for their new openings.

Fridays, September 1, October 6, November 3, and December 1 @ 2:30 PM. Chestertown Branch, Main Meeting Room. Free, but limited to those over 18 or with parental permission.

Resume 9-1-1

September is Update Your Resume Month. Join Vicky Sawyer, Master Career Counselor from Washington College Center for Career Development, at the Kent County Public Library in Chestertown for a workshop on updating and improving your resume. Individual help will be available at the conclusion of the discussion for a limited number of people who pre-register by September 1.

Brownbag Readers' Forum

Bring your lunch, talk with others about what you're reading, and hear what they're reading that you might enjoy. We'll meet on the second Tuesday of each month at noon in the yellow building in the library parking lot. New participants are always welcome.

Tuesdays, September 12, October 10, November 14, and December 12 @ 12-1 PM. Chestertown Branch, Yellow Building.

Book Discussions

Join our book discussion group for thought provoking discussion of a different book on the last Wednesday of each month. Call the library to join so you'll be notified when books are available to read for the discussion, or just show up having read the book. Upcoming discussions include The Love Wife by Gish Jen and Bold Spirit by Linda Lawrence Hunt. There will be no discussion in December, but discussions will resume in January. Call or visit our Web site for more details.

Wednesdays, September 27, October 25, and November 29 @ 5:30 PM. Chestertown Branch, Yellow Building.

Computer Skills Series

This is a newly created six class series introducing participants to the use of computers. The series will cover computer basics, Internet navigation, finding and evaluating information online, using the library catalog and Web site, getting and using email, and basic word processing and office applications. Class size is limited to 8, so please register in advance.

Thursdays, October 5 through November 9 @ 2:30 PM. Chestertown Branch.

Tales Tombstones Tell

This year, Halloween isn't just for kids. Ed Okonowicz, author and storyteller, will be at the library on Halloween day to enlighten and entertain. His stories will be of interest to genealogists, tombstone and cemetery hobbyists, and anyone who wants to enjoy some eerie tales and interesting graveyard pictures on Halloween. Join us at noon and feel free to bring a brown-bag lunch.

Tuesday, October 31 @ Noon-1 PM. Chestertown Branch, Main Meeting Room.

Scents for the Holidays

Delight in exquisite holiday scents as Ellen DeCaro Presents her aromatherapy seminar and takes you on a sensory journey of sweet memories. Relax during the seminar. Sit back and enjoy the feelings invoked by aromatic scents such as clove, cinnamon, anise, vanilla, allspice, bayberry, winter pine and orange peel. Feel the emotions within these scents and learn why these aromas have become so popular during the holiday season. After the seminar, create a scented holiday craft to take home and decorate for the season.

Saturday, December 2 @ 10-11:15 AM. Chestertown Branch, Main Meeting Room. Please register by Friday, November 24 (the day after Thanksgiving) if you intend to participate in the craft.

All programs are free of charge unless noted otherwise. Some programs may require pre-registration. Questions and Registration Requests can be directed to Karen at 410-778-3636, 408 High Street, Chestertown, MD.
